

JOIN A MODERN & GROWING NURSERY

Like-minded people | Rewarding work | Fast opportunities for progression

We do we exist?

We started a nursery so that parents had a home from home for their children while they went to work.

To have a nursery that understands what London life is like, embraces diversity and adapts continually.

Where are we going?

Our aim is to build a small group of unique and exciting high-quality nurseries.

We are comfortable experimenting with new lessons and approaches and welcome new ideas from all our team.

What this could mean for you?

How good we are as a nursery is primarily driven by good our people are.

We set high standards as we have capable people and want everyone to work towards the same goal.

With our expansion, senior positions will be made available regularly to high performers.

ECS/EYTS role opportunities

Congratulations for getting through an intense year of study. Lot's of placements, new children and new experiences to manage. Now you've balanced that with the added burden of coursework, I imagine you are probably in need of a summer break and may welcome a new challenge later in the year.

Our style of growth is careful and steady. This is how you develop a good thing. You put time and effort in to it and don't expect immediately perfect results. We work hard at making it great.

Our new nursery will be a great place to work. It will look similar to the above sketch, have a dedicated staff area, a professional kitchen and will be located on the river in an established attractive development.
